Neil-

The ADA from Pittsfield got back to me and my case this Thursday (5/5/11) did indeed plea, so I am available that day as well.

Neil-

Here's my scheduled for the next few weeks:

Thursday, May 5: Springfield District & Pittsfield District (likely a plea - I've emailed the ADA to double check)
Friday, May 6: Pittsfield District

Monday, May 9: Greenfield District
Tuesday, May 10: Wareham District & Springfield District
Wednesday, May 11: Springfield District & Brockton District
Thursday, May 12: Greenfield District
Friday, May 13: Springfield District

Monday, May 16: Brockton District
Tuesday, May 17: Springfield District x2, Fall River District & New Bedford District
Wednesday, May 18: Springfield District
Thursday, May 19: Belchertown District
Friday, May 20 -> May 31: open (!!!)

Obviously I already have some date/court conflicts that will hopefully work themselves out without causing too much trouble. Any date that I only have Springfield District would be best, and I'm guessing that it wouldn't be much of a problem to work with/around Greenfield and Belchertown (and possibly even Pittsfield), but since I do not know what is happening on the days that I may be in eastern Mass, those days will be the hardest to plan.

I've attached a copy of my CV to this email and I'll work on the discovery packet today and get it to you as soon as possible.

Hi Sonja, I also meant to ask you if you could forward to me a copy of your CV (I have it on file, but I just moved my office and I think it is buried) and copies of any notes or reports you produced as a result of these analyses. Prior to my taking this case on, a judge ordered such be provided, thank you!

Hi Sonja, the trial of [REDACTED] (which involves your cert. #'s [REDACTED]) will be sent out this week, which means that it could begin as early as Thursday. Do you have anything upcoming within the next two weeks that will effect your availability? I expect this matter to plea (the defendant admitted everything) but I can never be certain. Thanks!
